HUDSON RESTAURANT WEEK RETURNS THIS SUMMER WITH 11 NEW RESTAURANTS

HOBOKEN, NJ – July 8, 2010 – The summer is here and that means dining out – Hudson Restaurant Week returns from July 26-August 6. Eleven new restaurants have been added to the list like Chart House, Dino & Harry's, Hamilton Inn, Clam Broth House and many more. Of course, the list has everyone's favorites and highly rated restaurants including: Amanda's, Casa Dante, South City Grill, 3Forty Grill, Zylo, Edwards Steakhouse, and Light Horse Tavern. Hudson Restaurant Week provides diners with a variety of local selections and lots of great deals. For a complete list of participating restaurants and menus visit www.hudsonrestaurantweek.com.

This year's list has more diversity including Indian food from Amiya in Jersey City; Thai options with More, Sky Thai and Sawadee; and even Hibachi at Teppan Bar & Grill. With so many choices you might need several nights to taste the very delicious meals being served this Restaurant Week.

According to business owners, Restaurant Week helps during a slow time of year and brings in new customers that have never been in their restaurants. It provides an opportunity to showcase their menus and bring them back during other times of years.

Visit www.hudsonrestaurantweek.com for further details and information.
